The Fay L. Corey Union

Dedication Ceremony

STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE □ CORTLAND, N.Y.

FAY L. COREY

1918 - 1965

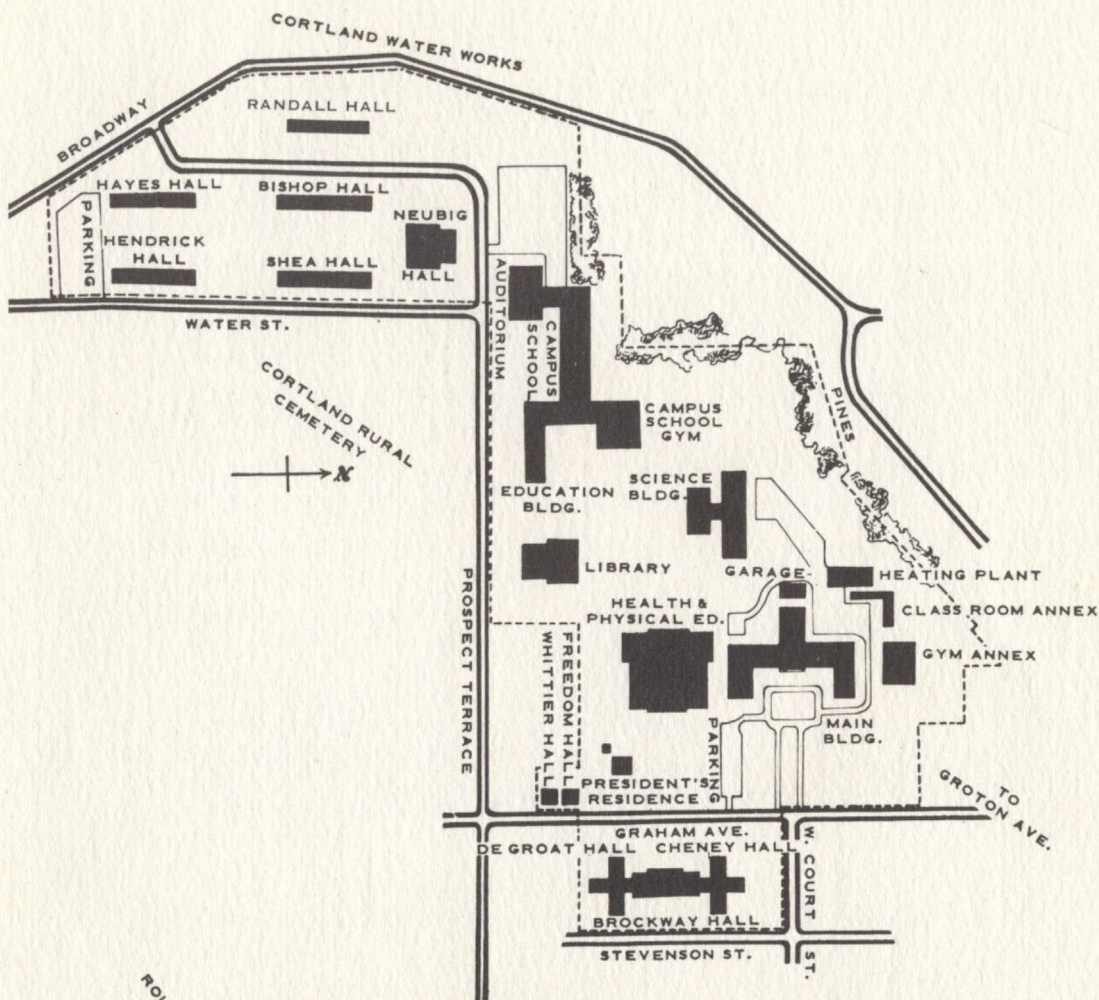

Dr. Fay L. Corey achieved the lasting love and respect of students and associates during her 17 years at Cortland. In naming the Fay L. Corey Union the College Council recognized that Dr. Corey's main interest was the welfare of students.

Dr. Corey joined the College at Cortland faculty in 1948, the same year that the College became a part of the new State University of New York. When she died on November 17, 1965, she was associate dean of students for counseling. She is credited with a major role in the development of student government and student activities programs on campus and several times was honored by the House of Delegates — the student government — with citations recognizing her contributions.

A tribute to Dr. Corey, published in a special edition of the Hilltop Press, expressed the feelings of the students this way:

"Those of us who had the opportunity to know her will be cognizant of her physical absence. The few of us who never had the opportunity to meet her will continue to hear people talk about her. This will not be idle chatter. When you refer to Dr. Fay L. Corey, you reflect your admiration for one of the most inspirational people you have ever had the opportunity to meet. Miss Corey was a special friend to the students at Cortland. She had a very unique way of telling you 'you COULD do it.' Through Miss Corey's guidance you were able to objectively evaluate yourself and your actions.

"If a student confronted her with a problem, big or small, Miss Corey would help the student think it out to obtain a better view of the situation. With this understanding you could either accept it or conquer it. Your problem became her problem. Yes, her physical absence will be felt while her ideas and her inspiration remain with those who had the opportunity to know and talk with her."
